TONY EUGENE EDWARDS	§

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Findings of Fact

[] A. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), § 3142(f)(1)].

[] (1) The defendant has been convicted of a (federal offense) (state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is

[] a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).

[] an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.

[] an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. () § 801 et seq. () § 951 et seq. () § 955(a).

[] a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) (A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.

[] (2) The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.

[] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

[] (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

☐ B. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)]

☐ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense

☐ for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C.
(X) § 801 et seq. () § 951 et seq. () § 955(a).

☒ C. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)]

☒ (1) Defendant is currently charged with possession of an illegal firearm in violation of 26 U.S.C. §§ 5861(d) and 5871, and being a felon in possession of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1).

☒ (4) I find that there is no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) which will reasonably assure the safety of any other person or the community.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, information submitted in the Pretrial Services

Agency report, and information at the detention hearing establish by clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

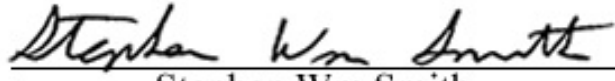

1. Defendant is a 30 year old male born in Houston, Texas, and has resided in Texas City, Texas for the last year. He is married and has three children ages 7, 5, and 2. He has been employed off and on in landscaping for several years.
2. Defendant has a lengthy criminal history, including prior convictions for auto theft, theft, deadly conduct, burglary of a coin operated machine, criminal mischief, and multiple convictions for possession of marijuana.
3. Defendant is currently charged with possession of an illegal firearm in violation of 26 U.S.C. §§ 5861(d) and 5871, and being a felon in possession of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1). He is facing a penalty of up to 10 years in prison.
4. At the time of Edwards's arrest, a loaded pistol was found on the floor of his living room in close proximity to his then 4 year old child. Two other firearms were discovered in defendant's bedroom, and two additional pistols were found in his vehicle.
5. After his arrest, Edwards admitted to investigators that he bought guns off the street, often in exchange for crack cocaine. Small amounts of crack cocaine were detected in his residence. One of the weapons in his possession was reportedly stolen in Texas City about three months prior to his arrest.
6. The circumstances of Edwards's arrest, together with his admitted propensity to trade drugs for firearms and his criminal record, are clear and convincing evidence that he poses a danger to other persons and the community.
7. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas, on October 18, 2007.
